WHEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the failure of the Parties/Counsel to file Unilateral Status Reports, pursuant to LBR 7016-1(a)(3), by no later than Friday, August 17 at 4:00 p.m., will result in a sanction of not less than $250.00 unless such filing is excused by the Court.

- (3) Unilateral Status Report. If any party fails to cooperate in the preparation of a joint status report and a response has been filed to the complaint, each party must file a unilateral status report not less than 7 days before the date set for each status conference, unless otherwise ordered by the court. The unilateral status report must contain a declaration setting for the attempts made by the party to contact or obtain the cooperating of the non-complying party. The format of the unilateral status report must substantially comply with mandatory court form F 7016-1.STATUS.REPORT.

The consequences of failing to comply with the foregoing LBRs are explicit within their terms.
LBR 7016-1(f) and (g) provide:

(f) Sanctions for Failure to Comply with Rule. In addition to the sanctions authorized by F.R.Civ.P. 16(f), if a status conference statement or a joint proposed pretrial stipulation is not filed or lodged within the times set forth in subsections (a), (b), or (e), respectively, of this rule, the court may order one or more of the following:

- (1) A continuance of the trial date, if no prejudice is involved to the party who is not at

(g) Failure to Appear at Hearing or Prepare for Trial. The failure of a party's counsel (or the party, if not represented by counsel) to appear before the court at the status conference or the pretrial conference, or to complete the necessary preparations therefor, or to appear at or to be prepared for trial may be considered an abandonment or failure to prosecute or defend diligently, and judgment may be entered against the defaulting party either with respect to a specific issue or as to the entire proceeding, or the proceeding may be dismissed.
